

Back-To-School

For Parents & Guardians

How do we get our students to thrive without the school setting? Home is quickly turning into the new classroom and parents/guardians now have another hat to wear. This resource sheet is here for those moments when the hat just doesn't feel like it quite fits.

Understanding The Academic Success Goals of your Child

This site consists of grade specific guides that give you clear academic expectations according to your child's grade level. This will help you understand the goals that your child's teacher is aiming to accomplish, which ultimately will have you (parents/guardians) on the same page as your child's educators and less uncertain about what is expected from your children on an academic level. (Guides also available in Spanish on site)
